Members of the Gypsy Folk Ensemble Dance Group perform a Greek dance during a program in July at the South El Monte Library.

Jersey Jim produces a beautiful flower bouquet during his magic show on July 27 at the South El Monte Library.

Children sit spellbound during Jersey's Magic/Comedy Show at the South El Monte Library. Each child received a balloon animal after the program and were also treated to ice cream cones out.

South El Monte Library Adult Book Club

The South El Monte Library Adult Book Club meets every first Thursday of the month at 6:00 p.m.

The following books will be discussed:

- October 6 -- Unbroken by Laura Hillenbrand
 - November 3 -- Poetry Showcase presented by the Nuvein Foundation (local authors will read and discuss their poems)
- Bring your favorite poem to share.

The public is invited to join the club, and you don't have to read the entire book to participate. Please sign up at the South El Monte Library in advance so that we know how many to expect. Light, healthy refreshments are provided by the Friends of the South El Monte Library.

The South El Monte Library, which is a part of the County of Los Angeles Public Library, is located at 1430 N. Central Ave. in the South El Monte Civic Center. For more information, please call (626) 443-4158 or visit www.colapublib.org.
